MESHELLE

"The Indie-Mom of Comedy"

INNOVATIVE, INDEPENDENT with INDIVIDUALITY are the words that best describe MESHELLE "The Indie-Mom of Comedy". With a style that makes you stop and in your tracks and say "she looks like "the Girlfriend, not "the WIFE" and certainly not anyone's "MOM". MESHELLE is a wife, mother of 3, and sought after comedienne whose appearances include: Nickelodeon's Search for the Funniest Mom in America 3 (Hosted by Roseanne Barr), Martin Lawrence Presents: THE FIRST AMENDMENT STAND UP (STARz), THE BLACKLIST: 20 Most Notable and Notorious Moments of 2009 & 2010 (TV-ONE); BET News Presents; Obama: Journey to the White House, as well as BET's ComicView (2014), ASPIRE TV (Laff-Mobb Presents: We Got Next, 2014) The WORD Network (Soulaughable Comedy Series) (NBC, syndicated Documentary) Walk a Mile In My Shoes: 90 Year Look at The NAACP MESHELLE pioneered the role of "Michelle" (portrayed by Kimberly Elise in the film adaptation) in the hit Stage Play "Woman Thou Art Loosed" written by TD Jakes and Terry McFadden.

MESHELLE is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and a 2010-2012 Open Society Institute Community Fellow. MESHELLE's New One Woman Show, "Diary of A M.I.L.F." (Mom I'd Love to FOLLOW) Directed by Rain Pryor; debuted December 17, 2011 to a sold-out audience at the Baltimore Theatre Project and has received multiple awards; WINNER, Favorite Overall Theatrical Experience (Atlanta Black Theatre Festival, 2012); WINNER Audience Choice Award (DC Black Theatre Festival, 2013). WINNER, "One Act Battle" (DC Black Theatre Festival, 2012, 2013), WINNER, Outstanding Solo Performer (Midtown International Theatre Festival, 2014: NY, NY)

COMMUNITY IMPACT

GOALDIGGERS

THE SANKOFA PROJECT

OUR MISSION

The mission of Goaldiggers the Sankofa Project: is to connect inner-city teen girls of African descent to education and gain college access, by introducing them to the study of their ancestry and ethnic identity reinforcing a positive self-concept. Anthropological methodology, genealogical research and DNA testing will uncover and assure their ethnic identity. To culminate the two-year experience, participants will travel to Ghana, West Africa for a cultural immersion voyage.

OUR GOAL

The goal: is for each girl to become a college educated young woman with a positive self-concept and an assured ethnic identity; poised to serve her family, peers and community.

WHAT MAKES GOALDIGGERS THE SANKOFA PROJECT WORK?

- A multidisciplinary program advisory team: Sociologist, Social Worker, Artist In Residence, Community Organizers
- Group and Individual Mentoring
- Cultivation of College Readiness Skills: Introduction to research methodologies, critical thinking, writing and presentation
- Guest lecture series
- Collaboration
